- 6.1 Standing in the name of Cllr. Adrienne Wallace

"Following on from the RTÉ Investigates programme that reviewed expense records from every local authority in the country, as well as records from numerous other public bodies that pay councillors' expenses revealed that hundreds of councillors contravened a provision in the Local Government Act designed to provide transparency about the expenses claimed by local representatives, this council should write to the relevant departments, and the Taoiseach, to call for reforms. A singular centralized system should be developed to stop any future councillors receiving double payments by wrongly claiming expenses from their own local authority and from an external organisation for the same official absence."

6.2 Standing in the name of Cllr. William Paton

"That Carlow County Council supports the Irish Society for Colitis and Crohn's Disease (ISCC) campaign to highlighting the need for all businesses and public amenities to support people living with IBD by allowing those presenting the ISCC "No Waiting" card access to public toilets while still abiding by public health guidance."
