The Role of the Social Worker

Introduction

Carlow County Council provides services to a population of over 62,000 citizens in areas of housing, roads, transportation, planning, environment, libraries, economic and community development, tourism, fire and emergency response, parks, amenities, heritage, arts, and water services.

Carlow County Council consists of 18 members elected every five years. The county is divided into the three Municipal Districts of Carlow, Muinebheag & Tullow.

At a strategic level, the Council operates through its Corporate Policy Group comprising the Cathaoirleach of the Council and the Chairs of the local authority's four Strategic Policy Committees as well as a Municipal District representative. The Chief Executive and the Council's Management Team play a key role in supporting and advising this policy group.

The Council has over 400 employees and can offer exciting careers across our services in various roles such as engineering, technical, financial, management, administration, library services, fire services and general services. The headquarters are in Carlow Town and there are also offices in Tullow and Muinebheag.

The Council operates within an annual revenue budget of €96 million and a multi-annual three-year capital budget of €160 million.

The role/duties of the Social Worker:

The role of local authority Social Work within housing has changed over time in light of emerging needs of vulnerable groups and clients. The role has expanded and evolved historically from a Traveller specific role to responding to a broader base of referrals where assessment and intervention is required. Social Work provides a housing related service including responsive and preventative work. LA Social Workers respond to referrals in respect of:

- Existing tenants / Applicants
- Older persons
- Travellers
- Vulnerable adults work (Safeguarding)
- Child Welfare cases
- Disability cases (Intellectual, Physical, Sensory & Autism) including Children's Disability cases
- Mental Health
- Homelessness & HAP claimants"- LGMA LA Survey Jan 2024
- LGBTQI+ (Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and intersex)
- Other marginalised and vulnerable individuals and groups such as refugees and asylum seekers.

In addition to the above, professionally qualified Social Work staff respond to cases regarding family needs assessments, crisis intervention, bereavement and loss, Advocacy and concerns regarding capacity of clients (Assisted Decision Making "Capacity" Act 2015). The profession of Social Work involves supporting individuals and families who are experiencing difficulty in coping which is impacting on their ability to function. This may be due to, emotional issues, illness, general coping ability, lack of social supports, addictions, mental health, disability, ageing, personal or interpersonal relationship problems. The work involves assessing what the issues are and firstly identifying solutions with the client(s) themselves utilising a strengths-based approach and making referrals and recommendations regarding service delivery as appropriate.

The role of the professionally qualified Social Worker is additionally outlined as follows:

- The provision of Social Work and welfare services to housing applicants and housing tenants with particular emphasis on key target groups as outlined above. The role is to support clients of Social Housing sections in attaining and sustaining tenancies with strong emphasis on inter-agency working to support the Housing client.
- Responding to cases that have been assigned by the Senior Social Worker utilising a referrals and caseload management system.
- Social Workers carry out evidenced based, holistic assessments utilising a systems, strengths based approach and trauma informed approach to determine needs and appropriate interventions to assist in informing service delivery. This may be completed as part of an initial Social Work referral or as part of a changing need for existing, open cases. Assessment can be a once off piece or an ongoing process in determining needs and planning interventions for longer term clients. Assessments take place when cases are referred or re-referred. Intervention and assessment should identify a clear purpose for input, analysis of information and evidence-based recommendations to assist with and inform service delivery. Social Work assessments are valuable processes to have available within local authority housing sections to inform appropriate responses on cases. They contribute significantly to Social Housing assessments when required on referred cases thus leading to better outcomes for clients.
- Engage with persons referred for Social Work intervention/support and arrange for engagement with (external) agencies as determined.
- Support the work of Action Teams within the local authority, homeless, disability etc.
- Undertake needs assessments for housing applicants and housing tenants, including the key target groups, seeking accommodation supports.
- Make recommendations on allocations of social housing (include AHB nominations) with particular emphasis on the key target groups, as outlined above.
- Ensure best practice in terms of child safeguarding within Council activities and act as Child Protection Liaison Officer and Sexual Offences Liaison Officer (SOLO) on behalf of the Council.
- In line with professional social worker standards, maintain appropriate records and generate reports on clients and other projects as required.
- Receive referral from housing colleagues where the estate management/anti-social behaviour issues are determined to require social work intervention and to work with the client/tenant to address the issues arising including referral to external agencies.
- Liaise with agencies (including but not limited to the HSE, TUSLA, Probation service, Irish Prison Services, An Garda Síochána, etc.) to support the needs of housing clients, and attend inter-agency meetings and case conferences as required.
- Undertake the duties of the Designation Liaison Person as per Carlow County Council's Child Protection Policy and 2015 Children First Act. Ensure best practice in terms of child safeguarding within Council activities.
- Advise and assist in miscellaneous family and personal problems, including relations between tenants.
- As required, advise and make recommendations to the local authority on the formulation of policy with a focus on the accommodation of housing customers particularly the marginalised and vulnerable throughout the county.
- Participate in the review of the statutory Traveller Accommodation Plan.
- Co-ordinate the various sections of the local authority in regard to service provision for housing customers particularly the key target groups and co-ordinate these services with those of voluntary organisations engaged in work on behalf of these clients.
- Review policies under the direction and support of the Senior Executive Officer/Director of Service and assist in their implementation for marginalised and vulnerable housing clients.
- Assist in the implementation of new and existing initiatives on all housing related matters.
- To undertake additional training and continued professional development as required.
- Any other duties that may be assigned.

If during your employment, your licence is revoked, even temporarily, or if you receive endorsements on your licence, which may affect your duties, you are obliged to notify the Council immediately.

Superannuation & Retirement

If you are pensionable under the Local Government (Superannuation) (Consolidation) Scheme 1998 and are liable to pay Class A PRSI contributions, you would be required in respect of superannuation to make contributions at the rate of 3.5% of net pensionable remuneration (i.e. pensionable remuneration less twice the annual rate of social insurance old age contributory pension payable at the maximum rate to a person with no adult dependant or qualified children) plus 1.5% of full pensionable remuneration. You are required in respect of spouses' and children's pension benefit to contribute at the rate of 1.5% of full pensionable remuneration in accordance with the terms of schemes made under the Local Government (Superannuation) (Consolidation) Scheme 1998. Maximum retirement age is 70.

If the Public Service Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2004 applies to your employment, 65 is the minimum age at which your pension may be paid. As a new entrant to the public service, under the terms of this legislation you will not be required to retire on grounds of age. Persons who become pensionable officers of a local authority who are liable to pay the Class D rate of PRSI contribution will be required in respect of their superannuation to contribute to the local authority at the rate of 5% of their pensionable remuneration. You may also be required to pay Spouses and Children/ Widows and Orphans contributions at the rate of 1.5% of gross pay. Maximum retirement age is 70.

Persons who become pensionable staff of a local authority for the first time on or after 01 January 2013 are assigned to the Single Public Service Pension Scheme with effect from the date of appointment. The scheme is contributory and provides pension, retirement gratuity, death gratuity and survivors benefits. If you are pensionable under the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and other provisions) Act 2012, you are liable to pay the Class A rate of PRSI contribution. You are required to pay contributions as follows: 3% of gross remuneration and 3.5% of net pensionable remuneration (i.e. pensionable remuneration less twice the annual rate of social insurance old age contributory pension payable at the maximum rate to a person with no adult dependant or qualified children). The minimum age at which you may retire is allied with the State Contributory Pension age (currently 66, rising to 67 in 2021 and 68 in 2028). The maximum retirement age is 70. To qualify for a pension the successful candidate must have served a minimum of two years employment in a local authority. You are reminded that under this agreement the Council may refer you to a medical advisor at any time to determine fitness for carrying out the duties to which you have been assigned. Further information is available from the Human Resources Department.

Pension Accrual

A 40-year limit on total service that can be counted towards pension where a person has been a member of more than one existing public service pension scheme would apply. This 40-year limit, which is provided for in the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012 came into effect on 28 July 2012. This may have implications for any appointee who has acquired pension rights in a previous public service employment.

Pension Abatement

If the appointee has previously been employed in the Civil or Public Service and is in receipt of a pension from the Civil or Public Service or where a Civil/Public Service pension comes into payment during his/her reemployment that pension will be subject to abatement in accordance with Section 52 of the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012.

Incentivised Scheme for Early Retirement (ISER)

It is a condition of the Incentivised Scheme for Early Retirement (ISER) as set out in Department of Finance Circular 12/09 that retirees, under that Scheme, are debarred from applying for another position in the same employment or the same sector. Therefore, such retirees may not apply for this position.

Department of Health and Children Circular (7/2010)

The Department of Health Circular 7/2010 dated 1 November 2010 introduced a Targeted Voluntary Early Retirement (VER) Scheme and Voluntary Redundancy Schemes (VRS). It is a condition of the VER scheme that persons availing of the scheme will not be eligible for re-employment in the public health sector or in the wider Public Service or in a body wholly or mainly funded from public moneys. The same prohibition on re-employment applies under the VRS, except that the prohibition is for a period of 7 years. People who availed of the VER are not eligible to compete in this competition. People who availed of VRS scheme and who may be successful in this competition will have to prove their eligibility (expiry of period of non-eligibility)

Collective Agreement: Redundancy Payments to Public Servants

The Department of Public Expenditure and Reform letter dated 28th June 2012 to Personnel Officers introduced, with effect from 1st June 2012, a Collective Agreement which had been reached between the Department of Public Expenditure and Reform and the Public Services Committee of the ICTU in relation to ex-gratia Redundancy Payments to Public Servants. It is a condition of the Collective Agreement that persons availing of the agreement will not be eligible for re-employment in the public service by any public service body (as defined by the Financial Emergency Measures in the Public Interest Acts 2009 – 2011) for a period of 2 years from termination of the employment. People who availed of this scheme and who may be successful in this competition will have to prove their eligibility (expiry of period of non-eligibility).

Data Protection:

Basis for Processing your Personal Information

The basis for processing your personal data is to progress your application for the position you have applied for with Carlow County Council under the Terms of the Employment (Information) Act 1994 and Human Resources policies and procedures. Personal data sought for the purpose of recruitment will include your name, your contact details including email address and mobile phone number, particulars of education, details regarding your record of employment and confirmation if you require an employment permit / visa / or work authorisation.

Sharing of Information

Outside of the relevant recruitment team, the information provided in your application form will only be shared for progressing the competition for which you have applied, with a designated shortlisting and / or interview board. If, following the competition, you are placed on a panel and offered a position, the information provided in your application form will form part of your Personnel File.

Storage period

Your application will be retained for one year from the date a panel for this position is formed. In exceptional circumstances panels can be extended for an additional year and your personal data will be kept until the extension has expired. Applications that are unsuccessful at interview stage will be retained for one year. Applications that are not progressed to interview stage will be destroyed post competition.

If you do not furnish the personal data requested Carlow County Council will not be able to progress your application form for the competition.

When your application is received, Carlow County Council creates a record in your name, which contains much of the personal information you have supplied. This personal record is used solely in processing your candidature. Such information held is subject to the rights and obligations set out in the Data Protection Acts, 1988 & 2003 and will be destroyed following the expiry of any panel put in place in respect of this competition.

RECRUITMENT PROCESS

Candidates will initially be assessed to ensure that they meet the minimum specified eligibility criteria for the position. All applications must be typed and the form filled out in full. Handwritten submissions will not be accepted. When completing the application form, accuracy is essential as the information supplied in the form will play a central part in the selection process. Submission of an application for employment is regarded as consent to share your information for the purposes of short-listing and recruitment.

Shortlisting

Normally the number of applications received for a position exceeds that required to fill existing and future vacancies to the position. While a candidate may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the position are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, Carlow County Council may decide that a number only will be called to interview. In this respect, Carlow County Council may provide for a shortlisting process to select a group for interview who, based on an examination of the application forms, appear to be the most suitable for the position. An expert board will examine the application forms against pre-determined criteria based on the requirements of the position. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable or incapable of undertaking the job, rather that there are some candidates, who based on their application, appear to be better qualified and/or have more relevant experience. It is therefore in your own interest to provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications/experience on the application form.

Canvassing

Applicants are reminded that any attempt by themselves or by any persons acting on their behalf directly or indirectly by means of written communication or otherwise to canvass or otherwise influence in the candidate's favour any officer of the County Council or persons nominated by the Chief Executive to interview or examine applicants, will automatically disqualify the applicant for the position they are seeking.

Competitive Interview

Selection of candidates for appointment shall be by means of a competitive interview. The Council is committed to a process of selection on merit, based on fair and open competition. The criteria for judging suitability and ranking will be related directly to the qualification, attributes and skills required to undertake the duties and responsibilities to the standard required in the post.

Panels

Following completion of interviews, a panel may be formed, the duration of which is at the discretion of the Council. While a panel remains in force, offers of temporary or permanent employment may be made subject to confirmation of qualifications and satisfying clauses in relation to health, character or other requirements of the particular post. Persons to whom an offer of employment is made must take up duty within 1 month from the date of offer, or such extended period as the Council may agree, otherwise, the Council may decide not to appoint them.

After the Interview

Carlow County Council will automatically advise you of the result of the interview. This may be done by letter and will include a copy of your individual marking sheet which will include the marks awarded to you for the various competencies at interview and any comments made by the Interview Board.

Taking up Appointment

The local authority shall require a person to whom an appointment is offered to take up such appointment within a period of four weeks and if he/she fails to take up the appointment within such period or such longer period as the local authority in its absolute discretion may determine, the local authority shall not appoint him/her.

Carlow County Council is an Equal Opportunities Employer
