"That Carlow County Council:

1. Recognises the vital role played by school secretaries and caretakers in the daily running of schools across County Carlow and the wider State, and acknowledges their dedication, professionalism, and essential contribution to the education system.

2. Expresses concern at the long-standing inequities faced by these workers in relation to pay, pension provision, job security, and other basic entitlements when compared to their public sector colleagues.

3. Calls on the Minister for Education and the Minister for Public Expenditure to urgently address these inequities. A copy of this motion be sent to said Ministers."
