2.4 Amendment of Standing Orders

In accordance with paragraph 16 of Schedule 10 of the Local Government Act, 2001 it is proposed to amend Standing Orders as follows:

Current Wording on item 17 of Standing orders is as follows:

"No member shall be permitted to have more than three motions (including adjourned motions) on the Agenda for any one meeting and the name of a member shall not appear more than three times on the Agenda as proposer or co-proposer of motions for any one meeting. Where at a meeting or any adjournment thereof more than one notice of motion appears on the Agenda to be proposed by one or more individual members, no second notice of motion of any such members shall be proposed until after every other member shall have proposed the sole or first notice of motion appearing in the member's name. A similar order of precedence shall apply to any further notices of motion remaining to be proposed by two or more members".

It is proposed to update item 17 as follows:

"No member shall be permitted to have more than one motion (including adjourned motions) on the Agenda for any one meeting and the name of a member shall not appear more than once on the Agenda as proposer or co-proposer of motions for any one meeting. If any Notice of Motion of which notice has been duly given relates to a matter normally dealt with by a Municipal District or Committee or comes within the terms of reference of any Committee or Committees, it shall be referred to such Municipal District or Committee as the Meetings Administrator may determine in consultation with the Cathaoirleach. Any dispute on such reference shall be determined by the Corporate Policy Group. Where there are two or more motions relating to the same topic which are substantially the same, they shall be listed together".

6.0 Notices of Motion/Fógraí Rúin

6.1 Standing in the name of Cllr. Willie Quinn

I am calling on Carlow County Council to compile and maintain a register of former petrol stations throughout County Carlow, identifying sites that contain underground fuel storage tanks and indicating whether those tanks have been decommissioned because over time a vapour builds up in the tanks which is highly flammable and dangerous. In many cases these former petrol stations were built close to schools and in the middle of towns and villages. There is so much development going on in towns and villages at the moment this issue is becoming very relevant and needs to be looked at particularly as street surfaces are being ripped up for works. Also properties change on a regular basis but the details do not and sometimes the location of these tanks does not come to light until works commence. It is the responsibility of the person who owns the property to have the tanks decommissioned. A register would be of great assistance to any person who is looking to buy a former property that was selling petrol.
